FROM COUNCIL:

On June 14, Council hosted a community wide Village Clean Up. This event was started in 2022 as a response to the increased garbage/debris that was collecting in the village and on neighbouring properties. This year we got our steps in and found that there was very little garbage throughout the village.

Thank you to everyone in the community that takes the time to pick up something when you see it. It makes a difference!

Diamond Valley Citizens on Patrol (DVCOP) reached out to Council offering the opportunity for them to expand and support the implementation of a Longview team of volunteers that would be the eyes and ears for the RCMP to help reduce the crime in the community. We look forward to DVCOP coming to Longview in September to host an information session describing who they are, how they operate and what the Longview team would look like. We hope to see you there! Stay tuned for details or reach out to the office/Council for more information. (<https://www.diamondvalley.town/658/Citizens-on-Patrol-DVCOPS>)

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers for their time and energy in planting the flowers along Morrison Road. You are much appreciated!!

If you haven't had a chance yet, we encourage you to stop by the village office and take a moment to enjoy the beautiful Crecent Point Legacy Garden. As always, Karen Wight and her helpers have out done themselves!!

Have a great summer and we look forward to seeing you at Little New York Daze July 19-20!!

LONGVIEW BIBLE FELLOWSHIP NEWS

Hello everyone. My name is Brian Lum and I am the new pastor at Longview Bible Fellowship.

Our Sunday service is at 11:00 AM with a Bible Study in the church basement on Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM. Coffee and snacks are always provided and childcare as needed. All are welcome to attend.

With the Little New York Daze weekend quickly approaching, our church will be again entering a float in the Saturday parade. On Sunday, July 19th will be having "Church in the Park" from 9:30-10:30 AM. All are welcome to join us for a time of worship and song and a brief message of encouragement.

Last summer we hosted a kid's 5 Day Club at our church. Presently, we are finalizing details to have it again with the tentative dates of July 28th to August 1st but it may be moved to the following week. Camp and registration details are presently being put together.

You can find updates for the camp and other church events on our church Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/longviewfellowship/> or you can call Brian at 587-785-2691. Have a great summer!

LONGVIEW LIBRARY NEWS

Congratulations to Rook, the winner of our Canada Day estimation jar. His guess of 30 was closest to the 31 items in the jar!

Writers Group has finished meeting for the summer. They'll be starting up again on the second Thursday of the month at 1:00 PM, beginning September 11th.

We are excited to tell you that our summer reading program "Everybuddy's Reading" is back for its 3rd year. Patrons choose a buddy to adopt from our adoption basket, name their buddy and sign the adoption paper promising to read to it over the summer. We will also have a fun summer reading bingo card for anyone who wants to participate and win small prizes.

Our 4th tiny ART SHOW kits will go out in July. You will have a choice of choosing canvas or clay to be displayed at the library for the month of August. Kits will include canvas or clay, paint, and paintbrushes. All participants will be entered in a cash draw to be held at the end of August. All ages and abilities are welcome, and membership is not required to participate. You can pick up your art at the end of August if you would like it back.

We have a couple more thank yous to send out this month. Thank you to Bruce Paschel from Strathmore for his cash donation of $25 for our tiny Art Show prize. Another thanks to our good friend Donnie for his donation of handicrafts as prizes for bingo. Your kindness and generosity mean a lot to us and our community.

Don't forget to stop in during July to choose your art kit and colours, adopt your reading buddy and grab a bingo card. We will also be at the park during Little New York Daze for our annual book sale. Hope to see you there!
